

SAXBY CHAMBLISS
GEORGIA

United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

April 3, 2009

Dear Ms. King:

It is my privilege to offer words of commemoration as we honor the life of your late husband, the Rev. A. D. King. This is a great opportunity to remember his contribution as a champion of racial equality.

Through observance of "Reverend A.D. King Day," we can ensure that the principles that inspired this great man will continue to influence Georgians for generations to come. I know that, throughout his many years of tireless and selfless service, he touched many hearts.

It is important that we continue to pay tribute to the life of a man who made a tremendous impact on so many people. May God continue to bless you and your family.

Very truly yours,
